- FOR ARCTIC & ANTARCTIC EXPEDITIONS, THE SOVIETS TESTED since 1950s many materials for personnel outfit. They finally picked CAMEL WOOL FILLED SUIT as it was warm, not bulky and didn't restrict mobility. Since then it became a must-have outfit for them. Camel wool is odor-resistant & moisture-wicking.
- SURVIVING HOWLING BLIZZARDS & SCORCHING HEAT OF THE GOBI DESERT where temps range from -40 to +40 Celsius, Mongolian feisty, woolly, two-humped camels FREELY GRAZE IN VAST OPEN VALLEYS. Their wool is non-allergenic. It is combed off camels and no camel is hurt. Its wool hollow fiber traps air in it, besides air trapped between fibers. Pilling can occur as with all wool.
- Hand wash in lukewarm water, wring, slightly stretch flat, and hang dry. Do not bleach.
